

Branches of Belonging

Connected by Roots. United in Community.

Partner Information Page

Being a Branches of Belonging Partner is free and open to businesses and organizations committed to creating welcoming community spaces.

By signing the one-time Partnership Pledge, you receive:

A Visible Symbol of this Commitment: Branches of Belonging window cling for the entrance to your building and staff-facing materials that clearly communicate your commitment to creating an inclusive, welcoming space.

Public Recognition: Logo and website link featured on the Branches of Belonging website

Visibility in Community Promotions: Name or logo included on select materials and campaigns that share the Branches of Belonging message

Community Engagement Opportunities: through events, partnerships, and sponsorship of Branches of Belonging initiatives

Support in Promoting Values-aligned Initiatives: Special, products, or programs that reflect belonging, inclusion, and community connection

Engagement & Sponsorship Opportunities

Partners are invited to further support this work through sponsorship opportunities that bring the Branches of Belonging mission to life, including:

Sycamore Park District Park Party – A Branches of Belonging Community Event

Parks are a place where everyone belongs and connection happens naturally! The annual Park Party celebrates open, inclusive spaces where people of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities can gather and play together. Businesses and organizations that also provide accessible wellness opportunities are invited to engage with participants through activities or promotional booths. Past Partners: NIU Athletes, Kish Kids Outside, Girl Scouts, Sycamore Library, DeKalb County History Center

Dessert & Dialogue - Lecture & Conversation Series

Dessert & Dialogue is an ongoing series that creates intentional space for storytelling, listening, and meaningful dialogue. While open to the public, this forum also offers Branches of Belonging partners a unique opportunity to engage more deeply in dialogue, connection, and relationship-building through attending, sponsoring, or presenting.
